

dear all,

attached is the first announcement of the three Breedspecific European shows that will be held in Etziken, Switzerland on 14/15 May 2011.

Our Swiss friends are already deep into all the preparations for this show and from what I have seen so far, the end result will be fantastic.

SURELY, A SHOW THAT NO CAVY FANCIER IN EUROPE CAN AFFORD TO MISS.

I urge you all, to start planning for this great event, as the show will be upon us before we know.

looking forward to your support and see you there!

regards,

Evelyne van Vliet
