- ★ The exhibition cages / aviaries are provided free of charge by the exhibition management.

9. Animal admission

The animal admission occurs on Tuesday 6th of November 2018 from 10 am to 8 pm. It can be delivered by collective transport or also individually. Prior to insertion, veterinary papers are inspected at the entrance. For the return of the evaluation cards and transport boxes of sold animals are those persons who have delivered the animals.

10. Judging

- 10.1 At European Shows are at least 4 judge supervisors for GS/WS, EX, FP and MCE. All judges are defeated by their supervisors. The supervisors must countersign all winner and exclusion birds. Judges are responsible for correctly filled in assessment lists. These have to be signed and delivered to the exhibition office with all notes such as European Champions. Supervisors are obliged to be present during the whole show course (delivery day up to the delivery).

- 10.2 The judging of the birds occurs according to the decisions of the standard commission.
- 10.3 The judges are urged to award maximum 93 points per bird. The first-placed bird of a master class always has 1 point more than the second-placed.

A revaluation on 94 points in the master class can occur only in the presence of the acting supervisor. Also, the champion must have 1 point more than the second-placed. A revaluation on 94 points for the European Champion must be met by all acting judges in this champion's class EE under chairmanship of the acting supervisor.

- 10.4 With the champions a ring control must be carried out. The ring control is carried out by a commissioned member of the standard commission of the section "Birds". It is controlled:

- ★ the breeder number and the breeding year
- ★ the ring sizes
- ★ manipulations

11. Honoring

Every exhibitor receives the reminiscent medallion of 29. EE - European show in 2018.

There is an award on 2 levels.

The lowest level 1 is the European Master. He will award according to the master grouping of the section birds.

Level 2 is European - Champion. He shows the highest level and is the most valuable. This price is in every champion's classes only once. According to protocol and regulations maximum 50 European-Champions can be awarded.

Total will be awarded:

- ★ For every European-Master-Class one European Master, if the bird has minimum 93 points and at least 10 birds from at least 3 exhibitors compete with each other. The European-Master will receive a certificate and, depending on the host country, perhaps a special prize.
- ★ For every European-Champion-Class one European-Champion, if there are at least 20 birds from at least 3 exhibitors. Minimum points = 94.

- ★ The European-Champion gets a certificate with a prize.
- ★ The Vice-European-Champion receives a certificate if at least 40 birds compete in the champion class. Minimum points = 93.
- ★ The 3rd place with the European Champion is honored with a certificate, if at least 60 birds in the champion's class compete. Minimum points = 93.
- ★ The title „EE of Youth-European Champion“ will be awarded according to the classification rules.
- ★ Price for aviaries:
It can be shown in the following groups:
  1. finch finches
  2. other tropical birds
  3. dwarf parrots
  4. parakitten
  5. parrots - parakeets
  6. quail - sirdove

In each individual group, a European Champion is awarded if at least 3 aviaries are exhibited in the individual group. An European Champion will be awarded if at least 5 aviaries are exhibited in each individual group.

For the pooled collection group, the procedure is the same as in the individual groups. If there are more than 5 aviaries in the hunt group, there is also a Vice European Champion.

Each European Master and European Champion will receive a certificate and a price.

Placements of aviaries are made by the judge together with the supervisor.

12. Catalog

The catalogue is obligatory for every exhibitor. For the youth the relation of the catalogue is voluntary. The foreign exhibitors receive her catalogue in the respective land stand.
